"Want another good reason to stay here? Futons don't have creaky springs."

Whether you've got children or not, sometimes it's nice to escape the pitter patter of little feet for a few days. Don't let somebody else's brats spoil your adults-only getaway. Play it safe and choose a hotel that 'doesn't cater for children'. In other words — no kids allowed!

7. Witches Falls Cottages, Tamborine Mountain, Queensland

Surrounded by pristine rainforest and towering gum trees, these secluded, self-contained stone cottages set the scene for a romantic stay. Witches Falls National Park is located just across the road and myriad antique stores beckon. Pick up a bottle of local bubbly to enjoy in the spa then relax with a Ripple Chocolate Massage or snuggle up in front of the fireplace with a bottle of red. Self catering is easy thanks to the attractive private BBQ area attached to each cottage.
